

JESUS' MARK

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus.

Acts 4:13 (ESV)

MISSING THE MARK

Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives. On the way, Jesus told them, "All of you will desert me..." Peter said to him, "Even if everyone else deserts you, I never will." Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, Peter, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me." "No!" Peter declared emphatically. "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!" And all the others vowed the same. Mark 14:26-31 (NLT)

_____ MISS THE MARK.

While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by. When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him. "You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus," she said. But he denied it. "I don't know or understand what you're talking about," he said, and went out into the entryway. When the servant girl saw him there, she said again to those standing around, "This fellow is one of them." Again he denied it. After a little while, those standing near said to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean." He began to call down curses on himself, and he swore to them, "I don't know this man you're talking about." Immediately the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows twice you will disown me three times." And he broke down and wept. Mark 14:66-72 (NLT)

I go to XStream, Calvary's Middle School Ministry, and I had never really had an up close experience with God before. I had learned how to follow God and took comfort that he was everywhere and always with me, but after that one night I have a new respect for God and his power. I was at the X678 - a time for the whole youth group to get together and have some fun. I had fun talking to friends and playing dodge ball but that's not what stuck out to me that night.

After the fun we gathered around to worship and praise God's name like any youth group should. I was kind of worried, I love to worship but not around kids my age. After a few technical difficulties and quiet singing Jeremiah had us do something a little different, as we gathered around we were told to let go, sing with our hearts not just our voices... and we did. I let go, I didn't care if people heard me. A joy surged inside. A love, a peace, something I had NEVER felt before danced inside me. It was a feeling that put a smile on my face and it was then I knew that Jesus was truly with me. It was Jesus and he sang there with me, it is hard to put into words what I felt inside.

After breakfast Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" "Yes, Lord," Peter replied, "you know I love you." "Then feed my lambs," Jesus told him. Jesus repeated the question: "Simon son of John, do you love me?" "Yes, Lord," Peter said, "you know I love you." "Then take care of my sheep," Jesus said. Once more he asked him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved that Jesus asked the question a third time. He said, "Lord, you know everything. You know I love you." Jesus said, "Then feed my sheep. John 21:15-17 (NLT)
