

Growing Up With Jesus

SERMON NOTES

Mark 6:1-12 • Pastor Dan Nold

THE DANGERS of GROWING UP with JESUS:

Jesus left that part of the country and returned with his disciples to Nazareth, his hometown. The next Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked, "Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?" Then they scoffed, "He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us." They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him. Then Jesus told them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family." And because of their unbelief, he couldn't do any miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Mark 6:1-6 (NLT)

REGAINING OUR WONDER

Then Jesus went from village to village, teaching the people. And he called his twelve disciples together and began sending them out two by two, giving them authority to cast out evil spirits. He told them to take nothing for their journey except a walking stick—no food, no traveler's bag, no money. He allowed them to wear sandals but not to take a change of clothes. "Wherever you go," he said, "stay in the same house until you leave town. But if any place refuses to welcome you or listen to you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate." So the disciples went out, telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God. And they cast out many demons and healed many sick people, anointing them with olive oil.

CALVARY | ONE CHURCH • MULTIPLE LOCATIONS

Shortly after the earthquake hit Haiti, I met Christina Jean-Louis. She is a PSU student – graduating this weekend – who has attended Calvary. Her father, Ernsou Jean-Louis, is an entrepreneur and pastor in Port au Prince, Haiti. A portion of the money you gave went to Ernsou and the people of his church. Ernsou pastors a fairly large Haitian church filled with young people. Their facility has been destroyed — but their church is alive and well!

Here is a bit of an email he sent after the earthquake:

Dear Pastor Dan,

Thank you for answering my email so quick. After the earthquake we have a big increase in our membership, so many people have accepted the Lord as their personal savior. It is a big move from the Lord. We have more than 120 people who accepted the Lord during the three days fasting this weekend. If God put in your heart to help financially for the time being, that is great! We need to have a temporary place to worship with more than 500 people. Keep us in your prayers as the Lord continues to do his will in this place. More than 120 voodoo priest accepted the Lord in the country also. That is the greatest news Christian people around Haiti have heard so far. God is at work indeed! We thank you and may God bless you and your church.

Do you realize that the history of Haiti is in the process of being re-written and from great tragedy God's love will prevail? This weekend in a few of our gatherings, Ernsou will be here sharing some of what God is doing. If you want to give to support Pastor Ernsou, please put Haiti Hope on your check. Let's bless them good.
