Mark 1:1 (ESV)

GOOD NEWS: _____

Where am I Marked by the Gospel?

Mark 1:2-3 (ESV)

OUR MISSION: _____

Am I Marking the Way for Others?

LEAVING A MARK -- REVIEW

And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit the brothers in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they are." Now Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark. But Paul thought best not to take with them one who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work. And there arose a sharp disagreement, so that they separated from each other.

Acts 15:36-39 (ESV)

This year is my junior year of high school and I've never felt this much stress or pressure! Between AP classes, exams, extracurricular activities and friends I barely have time to think. I realized tonight at HSM Prayer and Worship night that I also haven't made time for God. I have felt empty and anxious these past few weeks, but tonight I felt calm. I feel God in my heart urging me forward and as I go forward into this next week, I hope that inner peace remains. I have essays, AP exams, and other homework, but more importantly I have God. Grades will change, years will pass, and friends will come and go, but God will always be there. As I've grown older I've begun to see the effects of temptation everywhere and it's a very scary thing to deal with. It seems like I woke up one day and realized that more than half of my friends do drugs and/or drink. It's hard, but I do not join them in these activities. I'm on God's path for me and He's guiding me away from that sin. I know this might not be easy, but I'd rather take the road less traveled now than wish I had 20 years from now. I don't know what this year has in store for me, but as long as God is with me, I know I'll be alright!
