MEMBER OF THE STATE COLLEGE CITY-CHURCH

I'm part of a service-oriented group in my school called Little Lion Ambassadors. A couple of weeks ago our leader mentioned a service opportunity to serve Thanksgiving dinner at the local nursing home, Brookline. As I looked around the room to see who was going to volunteer, I was surprised to see no one's hand raised. I then raised my hand, not because I wanted to, but because I felt obligated. The dinner was the Sunday before Thanksgiving. As I got ready to leave the house to head to Brookline I was thinking, "Okay, I just have to get through this. It's only a couple of hours, no big deal." To my surprise I found myself really enjoying it! In the midst of asking a couple of ladies if they wanted a warm-up of their decaf coffees, one lady motioned for me to come to her. I went reluctantly because she was one of the more picky residents. She told me, to my surprise, that I had made her day. She said that seeing a young lady with a good attitude and willingness to serve old people like herself on my own time made her happy and ,yes, she'd like some more coffee, please. God never fails to humble me in the most unexpected moments. And thank you, Violet – you made my day too! ~HSM Student, breaking down walls between us and the world around us. C-WoW³
